Exciting Announcement: Help Us Name the TitanCraft Newsletter!

We're launching a brand-new monthly newsletter dedicated to all things that are happening on TitanCraft, and we want your creative input! Share your unique name suggestions that capture the spirit of our vibrant community, epic builds, and thrilling adventures. Whether it's whimsical, bold, or clever, we want to hear your ideas!

Submit your suggestions here. Let your imagination run wild, and may the best name win! The winner will be chosen by the mod and staff team.

Important news will be posted in Discord, not just in the newsletter. If any changes occur that impact the community, we will provide adequate time for everyone to adapt to the new rules.

Offering a helping hand

If you're interested in contributing to a project, please review the project list pinned in build_shenanigans on the Discord for available projects. Your skills and input could make a significant impact, so feel free to reach out to the project coordinator if you find something that inspires you!

Halloween district is coming to TitanCraft!

The Halloween district will open on October 5th. A big spooky balloon will appear on the roof at the south part of the spawn house allowing players to teleport to the Halloween district. If you want to go through the nether it will be the hallway at 285 south and then the first portal on your right hand side. Once the announcement has been made, you can bring over your building blocks to create spooky decorations, but until then, it remains a no-build zone.

“Capture The Moment”

Introducing the monthly photography competition “Capture The Moment”.

Each month this newsletter will present you a new topic for the monthly photo competition. You can submit a picture that matches your interpretation of the topic until the 20th of each month using the link here. You can be creative, funny or just take a beautiful picture, it's your choice! However remember we're judging the photo as a whole (it's not a build competition).

The topic of the first ever round is “Humble Beginnings”. Have fun!

Help us create the newsletter!

Titans, you can also submit your contributions to the newsletter using this submit button!

With every submission you can include a maximum of three pictures. The submissions can be anything. From a request for help to a showcase of your project or an entry for the poem of the month. When multiple submissions are received, the mods and staff will review them and decide which contribution(s) will be featured in the next month's newsletter.

Poem of the month

I set off from crowded shores,
In pouring rain and over sunny seas I go
with a shining cookie on a stolen horse,
Always in search of that mystical goal.

I failed, died, drowned, once and twice and thrice,
And finally, after countless tries,
Above the horizon appears a purple peak.

The fungus feels fuzzy under tired feet,
I climb up, but after a few steps, I freeze.
I stand there, clothes stained, numb and maimed
Behind the hill is a single spruce sign,

“Claimed”
